

DESIGN A CARRIAGE

Many of the carriages in the Royal Mews were designed hundreds of years ago and have lots of different signs and symbols on them. These decorations tell people about the owners of the carriage itself.

For example, the Australian State Coach has a kangaroo and an emu on it, both of which are creatures from Australia.

Get inspired by the carriages on display at the Royal Mews and design your own carriage!

Give your carriage a name:

---

---

