

The Queen's Coronation Robe

The Coronation of Elizabeth II took place on 2 June 1953, at Westminster Abbey.

The Queen wore a beautiful robe made from purple velvet and lined with silk. The robe was embroidered with wheat ears, and olive branches - symbols of peace and wealth - and the symbol of The Queen - the crowned cipher. This took 3,500 hours to complete!

Colour in the portrait of
The Queen at her Coronation.

Did you know?

The robe weighed almost 7kg and was over 5m in length!

Can you find

A crown

The sceptre

Crowned cipher

Olive branches

Turn over and design your own Coronation Robe. Think about what colours and symbols you would use.