

8 July 2021

Buckingham Palace Garden opens to visitors this summer

The garden at Buckingham Palace in summer.

The garden's 156 m (512 ft) long
Herbaceous Border.

The Rose Garden and summer house can be seen
as part of guided tours.

The plane trees planted by Queen Victoria and Prince Albert more than 150 years ago.

The Waterloo Vase, Rose Garden and summer house can be seen as part of guided tours.

The garden's 3.5-acre lake in summer.

The Indian chestnut avenue in summer

Visitors will have views of the garden's island and its beehives across the 3.5-acre lake.

Credit line for all garden images:
Royal Collection Trust / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2021. Photographer John Campbell

Images are available to download from mediaselect.pa.media

For further information please contact the Royal Collection Trust Press Office, press@rct.uk or 020 7839 1377.

Buckingham Palace Summertime Range

A new summertime range, exclusively designed for Royal Collection Trust, goes on sale today (Thursday, 8 July) to mark the opening of the Garden at Buckingham Palace. The colourful design is inspired by royal ceremonies and summer flowers at Buckingham Palace.

Sandwich Bag, £7.95

Picnic Blanket, £35.00

Hand Sanitiser, £3.95

Water Bottle, £9.95

Cotton Napkin, £8.95

Orange and Lemon
Shortbread Biscuits,
£6.95

Blue Mug, £15.00

Pink Mug, £15.00

Strawberry and Champagne Jam, £4.95

Tea Towel, £9.95

Apron, £19.95

Strawberry and Vanilla Afternoon Tea, £5.95

Credit line: Royal Collection Trust / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2021.

For further information please contact the Royal Collection Trust Press Office, T. +44 (0)20 7839 1377, press@rct.uk.

Images are available to download at mediaselect.pa.media