On Friday, 15 July the Palace of Holyroodhouse will host a Jubilee Jive Late, an evening event inspired by 1950s music, dance and fashion

Short talks looking back at The Queen's previous Jubilees will be delivered by an expert curator

Attendees will have an opportunity to explore the State Apartments after hours and dress up in historic ceremonial garments

Jubilee Jive Late ticket holders will be able to see the Palace of Holyroodhouse in the summer evening light and enjoy refreshments in the Palace café.

Families visiting the Palace of Holyroodhouse from Thursday, 2 June—Saturday, 4 June can take part a range of Jubilee-inspired activities, including crown-making and dressing up.

On Saturday, 4 June, members of the public will attend an outdoor screening of the Platinum Party at the Palace which will be broadcast live by the BBC from Buckingham Palace. Amidst the stunning scenery of the Holyroodhouse gardens and the Salisbury Crags, attendees will picnic on the lawns whilst watching the concert on the big screen. This ticketed event is now fully booked.
